The authorization will continue until terminated by any account owner by written or verbal notification to WFA. Termination will be effective as soon as WFA, upon receipt, has had reasonable time to act upon it.

The following additional terms also apply to Qualified Retirement Plans accounts:

- If the instructions on this document relate to a Qualified Retirement Plan (the "Plan") account under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act ("ERISA"), the Trustee(s), as Authorized Person(s), certifies the disbursement is permissible under the terms of the Plan document, the assets are properly distributable to the above-named payee/recipient, and no other party has any claim of interest to these assets. Trustee(s) acknowledge they have provided all disclosures and notices to participants, including notice of distribution options, required under the terms of the Plan and/or ERISA and Internal Revenue Code ("IRC") and the regulations promulgated thereunder. Trustee(s) further confirm that any required withholding is being performed by the Plan Administrator or other entity hired by the employer and acknowledges that WFA is NOT withholding federal or state taxes on any disbursements, providing the required special tax notice or other required notices to participants, nor preparing Internal Revenue Service Form 1099(s) for the requested disbursement.
